

Opioids and Heroin

The Sins of Our Past

Presented by Andrea Boxill

Deputy Director
Governor's Cabinet Opiate Action Team
Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services

Andrea Boxill is a leader and team builder in behavioral healthcare who has worked in judicial, community mental health and substance abuse programs at state and local levels. She is a counselor knowledgeable in serving adults, young people and families in a variety of environments, with a focus on chemical dependency and human trafficking.

Boxill, who holds a Master of Arts in Counseling Ministries degree from Methodist Theological School in Ohio, also is a graduate and Fellow in the John Glenn Leadership Institute and a former member of the Social Psychology Network and the American Mental Health Counselors Association.

As deputy director of the Governor's Cabinet Opiate Action Team at the Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services, Boxill monitors service delivery, assists in writing policy, interprets federal and state laws and regulations to ensure compliance, and assists in coalition building to address the opioid epidemic across the state.

The Theological Commons at MTSO is a means through which the school shares intellectual resources with the church and the world through dialogue with the broader community. By offering events, learning resources and continuing conversation, the Theological Commons promotes the sharing of knowledge and experience between students, faculty, clergy and the public for the benefit of all participants and those they serve.
