

Tex Sample leads institute at Bay View

Registration now open for Congregational Leaders Institute

Following the success of the inaugural Congregational Leaders Institute in 2009, the program returns to picturesque Bay View, Mich., Aug. 1-5. Leading this year's institute is Dr. Tex Sample, the well-known lecturer, workshop leader and author.

Co-sponsored by Methodist Theological School in Ohio and Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, the Congregational Leaders Institute is a renewal and study opportunity for pastors and other leaders who seek to have a week of reflection, learning and interaction with inspirational in a beautiful lakeside retreat.

Tex Sample is the Robert B. and Kathleen Rogers Professor Emeritus of Church and Society at Saint Paul School of Theology. His latest book is Earthy Mysticism: Spirituality for Unspiritual People. In addition to an orientation gathering, Sample will present four lectures and participate in four 90-minute small-group conversations.
