DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

MISSION AND GOALS

In an era of cultural and ecclesial change, the Doctor of Ministry degree at MTSO seeks to provide the church with transformative leaders equipped with advanced skills for critically and theologically engaging issues and their contexts in ways that contribute to vital faith communities and institutions.

1. Graduates will have a broad understanding of contemporary issues in the theology and practices of ministry.
Graduates will achieve sufficient expertise in a specialized area of ministry to
2. provide transformative leadership in that area.
3. Graduates will have an ethical and collaborative understanding of change dynamics.
Graduates will demonstrate expertise in discerning critical ministry issues in a
4. local setting and devising appropriate means for intervention and change.
