

Rev. Dr. Heber Brown III leads

Faith, Food and Flourishing

Tuesday, April 17
1-5 p.m.

Methodist Theological
School in Ohio

Join Heber Brown, founder of the Black Church Food Security Network, for an energizing afternoon built around the church's role in building healthier communities. Your church might already possess the resources to address nutritional food security in your neighborhood. You'll leave this day with a toolkit for making a healthy difference.

$25 per person. One-half CEU available for $15.
