

Lectures by Teresa Delgado

Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
Professor of Theology and Religious Studies
St. John's University

7 p.m. Oct. 25, 2022

11 a.m. Oct. 26, 2022

Dr. Teresa Delgado has published on topics including decolonial theology, diversity in higher education, transformational pedagogies, constructive theology and ethics, and justice for racially, ethnically and sexually minoritized persons. Among her published works is the book A Puerto Rican Decolonial Theology: Prophecy Freedom, published in 2017.

Dr. Delgado holds doctoral, Master of Philosophy and Master of Arts degrees in systematic theology from Union Theological Seminary. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Colgate University with dual majors in religion and women's studies.

The Williams Institute was begun in 1981 to honor the late Dr. Ronald L. Williams, professor of theology from 1971 until his death in 1981. The institute has featured speakers from many backgrounds, including theologians, ethicists, poets, biblical scholars, historians, pastoral psychologists and Christian educators. Past Williams Institute lecturers include Philip Wogaman, Monica A. Coleman, Albert Hernández, Daniel Boyarin, Melanie Harris, Stacey Floyd-Thomas, Grace Ji-Sun Kim, Pamela Lightsey and Juan M. Floyd-Thomas.

We provide theological education and leadership in pursuit of a just, sustainable and generative world.
