Graduating Senior Checklist

The sequence below assumes a traditional Spring graduation date. For students concluding their studies in Fall (December) or Summer (August), the sequence will vary.

Early in the Year

- Degree Audit. Review your final degree audit from the registrar.
- Vocational Discernment. Make an appointment with the Office of Vocational Discernment to be informed of all services offered to you as you prepare to graduate, including resume and cover letter coaching, interview preparation, job search resources and strategies, and personal development tools, such as assessments. Sign up for the online service, which hosts a wide range of resources, including job postings, at www.collegecentral.com/mtso. Contact Kathy Dickson at kdickson@mtso.edu.
- Graduation Application. Instructions and deadlines are on the Graduation Application found here: www.mtso.edu/academics/registrar/academic-forms.
- Ordination/Licensure Requirements. Review your ordination or licensure requirements with your conferences, judicatories, or licensing boards.
- Testing Dates. If you need to take the GRE or licensure exams, check those dates and make arrangements.

Middle of the Year

- Spring Class Deadlines. If your last semester is Spring, please adhere to the earlier deadlines for papers and projects as set by your instructors as grades for seniors are due earlier than for other students.
- Reference Letters. If you need individual references from professors for ordination, employment, or admission to other graduate or doctoral programs, it is recommended you give that individual at least three weeks' notice.
- Graduation Regalia. A form will be emailed to you in February 2023 to order your graduation regalia (cap, gown, hood).
- Commencement Details. Watch for commencement details to begin coming from Danny Russell, President's Office. The Commencement website is located at www.mtso.edu/commencement. Feel free to share it with your family and friends. For any questions about the ceremony or graduation weekend events, please contact Danny at drussell@mtso.edu.
