Dr. Ralph Basui Watkins, known as “the scholar with a camera,” is the author of six books, including Hip-Hop Redemption: Finding God in the Rhythm and the Rhyme, and was executive producer and host of the television show Religion Roundtable with Dr. Ralph Basui Watkins on the Atlanta Interfaith Broadcasting Network. Among the documentaries he has produced is Seeing the Future of the African Church in the Rainbow: A Year in the Life of Real Inspiration Ministries.

Dr. Watkins holds a Ph.D. in sociology from the University of Pittsburgh, a Doctor of Ministry degree from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, a Master of Fine Arts from Savannah College of Art and Design and an MA in Religion from the University of Dubuque Theological Seminary.

The Williams Institute honors the late Dr. Ronald L. Williams, professor of theology from 1971 until his death in 1981. The institute has featured speakers from many backgrounds, including theologians, ethicists, poets, biblical scholars, historians and Christian educators.

We provide theological education and leadership in pursuit of a just, sustainable and generative world.
